WATERVILLE, Maine — The youth soccer coach whose team was the victim of a widespread child pornography distribution case was sentenced Wednesday to one day in jail, followed by five years of probation and a fine. Superior Court Judge Thomas McNamara sentenced Jeffrey C. Murtha, 26, of St. Albans, to one day in the Kennebec County jail for his role in distributing child pornography and ordered that Murtha's driver's license be revoked for five years. "This was a case that involved a lot of kids. Most of the kids were 12 and 13 years old," McNamara said. "The harm they suffered is immeasurable. This is not a victimless crime." Murtha was an assistant coach for the Portland-based New England Soccer Club in St. Albans. Prosecutors said there was evidence that Murtha downloaded several photographs of children engaging in sexual activity. McNamara said that during the investigation police tracked down more than 2,000 images of child pornography on computers belonging to Murtha and his wife. All of the images were graphic and "terrible," McNamara said. "These images were from the early to mid 1990s. They 2d92ce491b
