JOSEPH W. MAGGETT, Appellant.[1] No. 33957. The Supreme Court of Washington, Department Two. December 12, 1957. Philip Rosenbloom, for appellant. Beverly W. Berger, for respondent. PER CURIAM: The defendant was convicted of a charge of grand larceny. He was sentenced to the Washington state penitentiary. From that judgment he appeals. [1] It is urged, as an assignment of error, that the trial court erred in refusing to allow defendant to testify as to the character of one of the witnesses for the state. A careful study of the record reveals that the witness was an accomplice to the crime and the court instructed the jury to that effect. In these circumstances, it was not error for the court to refuse to allow the defendant to attempt to discredit this witness on the issue of his own
