Compare Similar Software User Reviews Major update, new interface, new features, even new fish AVI Marine Aquarium is my favorite aquarium simulator for Windows, Mac and mobile platforms. I really like to have marine aquarium on my desktop and mobile. I can change the mood for my desktop to the marine aquarium mood and I can watch the fish and sea life in an artificial environment. Its interface is not that user friendly. Also some tools need improvements It is a great aquarium to view beautiful fish. But I think there is no a built-in facility to display the fish in my tank in real time. So that I have to take the fish of my aquarium to my laptop to observe them. It is a good product but I find some bugs. For instance if I click on one of the fish in my tank, other fish appeared to dead. I think there is no any option to change their color. Another one is that I can't change the background color, or can't customize the color of my fish.

Nice looking website but does nothing. As the article says, it does not work, nothing happens when I enter the credentials, no ad banners, nothing. Can you contact the author of this page and tell him that it is a waste of space? Marine Aquarium 3.2.3 download Marine Aquarium - largest amount of marine aquariums. Frequently appears in the list of the top 50 programs in the category of "aquariums". Functions in the form of an interface similar to a fish tank, through which you can see the live organisms and perform necessary operations. When you launch the program, you are greeted by the aquarium simulation. Then it's time to collect the necessary things for the aquarium. There are a lot of various fish. You will be able to select all the species in your aquarium from the list. Probably, they will be considered as local and necessary for the aquarium. Do not just fill the tank with water, it will take a lot of time. The bath is much easier. Fill the container with water, put the aquarium in it and do not close the lid for a while. This will allow the water to cool down and the fish will
